

Maltby Centre, formerly Pathways for Children and Youth, is seeking committed, collaborative individuals to serve on the Board of Directors. The role of the ten member volunteer Board is to set the mission and strategic objectives while at the same time ensuring the agency is operating in a prudent, ethical and business-like manner.

Directors are expected to attend monthly board meetings and to take an active role in one of three Board committees.

In order to have a broad base of skills and community representation, individuals with experience in the following areas are being targeted for recruitment:

- Knowledge of public relations and communications;
- Experience working with funders, government and other;
- Experience as a community or family stakeholder.

Board experience on a not for profit Board is an asset but not necessary. We welcome individuals with diverse backgrounds including former clients of the agency. Directors must live and/or work in the counties of Frontenac or Lennox and Addington.

More information about the Maltby Centre can be found at www.maltbycentre.ca.

Interested individuals are asked to complete the Board of Director application form found in the Get Involved section on our website and return to:
