

Maltby Centre – E2020-08 Senior Manager, Corporate Communications Kingston, Ontario

Maltby Centre is the lead regional agency for Mental Health and Autism Services, with an experienced and compassionate team of professionals who provide high-quality, community-based health and support services to children and youth in Kingston, Frontenac and Lennox & Addington (KFL&A). Established in 1996 and formerly known as Pathways for Children & Youth - Maltby Centre is a registered charity and not-for-profit funded in part by the Ontario government. Through the work of over 140 dedicated staff, Maltby Centre is creating possibilities for change in young lives.

In this newly created role based out of Kingston, Ontario, the Senior Manager, Corporate Communications (Manager) is a key member of the Maltby Centre Senior Leadership Team with a natural-born communicator who is marketing savvy. This role will report directly to the Executive Director. The Manager will team across the organization to support internal and external communications development.

The ideal candidate will have post-secondary education in communications, public relations, journalism, marketing, or a related field. They will also bring extensive experience: with developing annual communication plans; with corporate communication strategies; with media releases and press conferences. Supported by a minimum seven (7) years' relevant experience, including three (3) years' progressively responsible communications leadership experience. French Language proficiency, written and verbal, an asset.

To explore this key leadership position at Maltby Centre further, please submit your resume and related information, quoting the job posting number, in confidence online: kfleming@maltbycentre.ca.

Maltby Centre is an equal opportunity employer. In accordance with the Accessibility for Ontarians with Disabilities Act, 2005, upon request, accommodation will be provided by Maltby Centre throughout the recruitment, selection and/or assessment process to applicants with disabilities.